Insurance Benefits

Emplus Employer Super provides access to a range of different insurance benefits. This section provides details of what insurance benefits are available, who is eligible for insurance cover and the payment of benefits, and how it works.

BENEFITS

Full details of the insurance benefits that may be provided through Emplus Employer Super by the Insurer, including eligibility or other criteria for the commencement of insurance cover and payment of insurance benefits (including some important definitions), are contained in the Insurer's insurance policies. This Insurance Guide summarises the significant aspects of the Insurer's policies as it affects insurance cover available in Emplus Employer Super.

Please note that the information about insurance in the Guide is subject to change. Such changes will be notified to you in accordance with our legal obligations (see inside the front cover of this Insurance Guide). In all cases, insurance cover for a member is subject to acceptance by the Insurer and terms and conditions of the insurance policies issued by the Insurer to the Trustee. To the extent of any inconsistency between the information contained in this Insurance Guide and the insurance policies, the terms and conditions of the insurance policies prevail. A reference to a 'Policy' in this Guide is a reference to the insurance policy applicable to the insurance cover provided by the Insurer.

AN IMPORTANT NOTE

It is important that you note that you should ensure that your Emplus Employer Super account always has sufficient funds to pay the insurance fees for any insurance cover you have, otherwise your cover will lapse. The Trustee is not responsible for ensuring that your insurance cover does not lapse due to insufficient funds or for informing you in the event that your cover is about to, or has, lapsed.

WHAT TYPES OF INSURANCE BENEFITS ARE AVAILABLE TO INSURED MEMBERS?

Insurance Benefits on Death

If you are covered by Death only or Death & Total and Permanent Disablement ("TPD") insurance, a lump sum insurance benefit will be paid by the Insurer to your Emplus Employer Super account (for your beneficiaries) in the event of your death while you are an insured member of Emplus Employer Super, if your claim is accepted by the Insurer having regard to the policy terms and conditions.

Insured Terminal Illness Benefits

If you are covered by Death only or Death & TPD insurance, you are automatically covered for Terminal Illness.

An insured Terminal Illness Benefit will be paid by the Insurer to your Emplus Employer Super account if you have Death cover and you are not expected to live for more than twelve months from the date of diagnosis, as diagnosed by two medical practitioners, one of whom the Insurer may elect and require to be a specialist physician. The maximum Terminal Illness benefit payable under the insurance policy is the lesser of the insured Death benefit or $1,000,000. If the insured Death benefit is greater than $1,000,000, the balance is paid out on your death so long as the insurance policy is still in force, and your Death cover has not ended (for example, because you have reached the benefit expiry age for the death benefit) and any other relevant policy terms and conditions are met.

Please note there is a difference between the 24-month prognosis period required for the payment of a benefit from your Emplus Employer Super account on the basis you are suffering a “terminal medical condition” as required by superannuation legislation and the 12-month timeframe relevant to the payment of an insured Terminal Illness Benefit under your Death insurance cover, under the terms and conditions of the insurance policy. As a result of this difference, if you have been diagnosed with a terminal medical condition and are expected to live less than 24 months, you may apply for a full or partial release of your Emplus Employer Super account balance. However, you should be aware that if you withdraw your full super account balance, your insurance cover will cease at that time as you will no longer be an Emplus Employer Super member and no longer have access to an insured Terminal Illness Benefit. If you wish to apply for the insured Terminal Illness Benefit which is based on a 12-month prognosis period, you will need to maintain an account balance sufficient to cover your insurance premiums until you meet the 12-month prognosis criteria, and a claim for your insured Terminal Illness Benefit can be lodged.

To be eligible for a payment of your account balance on the grounds of a terminal medical condition, the following requirements need to be satisfied:

- two registered medical practitioners have certified, jointly or separately, that the Member suffers from an illness or has incurred an injury that is likely to result in the Member's death within 24 months of the certification;
- at least one of the registered medical practitioners is a specialist practicing in the area related to the illness or injury suffered by the Member; and
- for each of the certificates the certification period has not ended.

Insurance Benefits on Total and Permanent Disablement

If you are covered by Death & TPD insurance, a lump sum benefit will be paid by the Insurer to your account if you become Totally and Permanently Disabled as defined in the insurance policy while you are an insured member of Emplus Employer Super, meet the policy terms and conditions for TPD benefit payment, and your claim is accepted by the Insurer. This benefit may be paid in accordance with the applicable condition of release under superannuation law (see the Emplus Employer Super Member Guide).

The Insurer will assess claims in accordance with the terms of the insurance policy. The insurance policy defines what constitutes Total and Permanent Disablement and sets out terms and conditions which need to be satisfied for a TPD benefit to become payable under the insurance policy. Different parts of the definition apply depending on your employment status and the hours you work.

Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) is defined in the insurance policy to mean one of the following:

TPD Definition 1:

An insured member satisfies all of the following (a), (b) and (c):

- a) is Gainfully Working on the day immediately prior to the Event Date; and
- b) was employed for at least the Minimum Average Hours; and
- c) in the Insurer's opinion based on medical or other evidence satisfactory to the Insurer, solely because of injury or illness, the Insured Member:
  - (i) has not worked during the entire Waiting Period; and
  - (ii) as at the Date of Disablement is unlikely ever to return to any Gainful Employment for which he or she is reasonably suited by education, training or experience, or would be suited by Reasonable Training.

OR

TPD Definition 2:

An insured member satisfies either (a) or (b) and also satisfies (c):

- a) is not Gainfully Working on the day immediately prior to the Event Date; or
- b) has not been employed for at least the Minimum Average Hours; and
- c) in the Insurer's opinion based on medical or other evidence satisfactory to the Insurer, solely because of injury or illness, the Insured Member:
  - (i) is totally and irreversibly unable to perform at least two of the Activities of Daily Living; and
  - (ii) as at the Date of Disablement is unlikely ever to engage in any Gainful Employment for which he or she is reasonably suited by education, training or experience, or would be suited by Reasonable Training.

The definitions of the bolded defined terms in TPD Definition 1 & 2 (and some terms used in the definitions of the bolded defined terms) are listed in the following table:

Defined Term	Definition
Activities of Daily Living	Means: a) Bathing – bathing and showering b) Dressing – dressing and undressing c) Feeding – eating and drinking d) Mobility – mobility, to the extent of being able to get in and out of bed or a chair, and move from place to place without using a wheelchair e) Toileting – the ability to use a toilet,  without the assistance of another adult person or suitable aids.
Date of Disablement	Means: a) For TPD Definition 1, the first day after the expiry of the Waiting Period . b) For TPD Definition 2, the first day that all of the elements of the definition are satisfied.
Employer Approved Leave	Means a person is: a) Employed for reward or financial benefit, or the hope of reward or financial benefit, in any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment; and b) On leave that has been approved by the employer prior to the commencement of that leave (except for approved sick leave)
Event Date	Means: a) For TPD Definition 1, the first day of the Waiting Period during which the Insured Member, in the Insurer’s opinion, solely because of injury or illness, has not worked b) For TPD Definition 2, the first day that the Insured Member, in the Insurer’s opinion, solely because of injury or illness, is totally unable to perform at least two Activities of Daily Living
Gainful Employment	Means any occupation or work for reward or financial benefit, or the hope of reward of financial benefit, whether on a permanent or temporary basis, and whether or not of a lesser grade, status or level of remuneration or of lesser hours than the Insured Member’s occupation or occupations or work.
Gainfully Working	Means a person is: a) Employed or self-employed for reward or financial benefit, or the hope of reward or financial benefit in any business, trade, profession, vocation, calling, occupation or employment; or b) On paid Employer Approved Leave .
Minimum Average Hours	Means 15 hours per week averaged over the six consecutive months immediately prior to the Event Date .
Reasonable Training	Means any further education, training or experience, the person has capacity to reasonably undertake, based on the skills and knowledge the person has acquired from their education, training or experience obtained prior to the Date of Disablement .
Waiting Period	Means a 183 consecutive day period.

Income Protection Insurance Benefits

If you are covered by Income Protection insurance, an insured Income Protection benefit will be payable monthly in arrears to your nominated bank (or other permissible) account if you become entitled to such a benefit because of temporary disability while you are an insured member. An Income Protection benefit is payable under the insurance policy, if you have a claim and your claim is accepted by the Insurer, for either a Total Disability Benefit or Partial Disability Benefit. The Insurer's acceptance of a claim is conditional upon the Insurer receiving all required information, the insured member meeting the Insurer's requirements, and the insured member being under the regular care of, and following the advice and treatment recommended by, his or her Medical Practitioner.

The Insurer will assess claims for a Total or Partial Disability Benefit in accordance with the terms and conditions of the insurance policy.

If your claim is accepted by the Insurer, your monthly benefits start to accrue and are payable after the end of the Waiting Period for the period of Total or Partial Disability up to the applicable benefit period (either '2 years', '5 years' or 'to age 65' benefit period as chosen by you and accepted by the Insurer). The Waiting Period is the number of consecutive days (either 30, 60 or 90 days, depending on the Waiting Period chosen by you and accepted by the Insurer) that you must be Totally Disabled or Partially Disabled before the Total Disability or Partial Disability benefit is payable.

Totally Disabled/Total Disability means solely as a result of injury or illness, the insured member is:

- incapable of performing one or more duties of his or her usual occupation necessary to produce income;
- not engaged in any occupation; and
- under the regular treatment, and following the advice of, a Medical Practitioner.

Partial Disability/Partially Disabled means, in relation to an insured member, all the following applies:

(a) he or she is no longer Totally Disabled, but has been Totally Disabled:

- for a period during which a Total Disability Benefit has been paid; or
- for at least 7 days out of 12 consecutive days during the Waiting Period;

(b) then returns to work, or is medically certified as being capable of returning to his or her usual occupation, but only in a limited capacity; and

(c) the Salary the member is earning, or is capable of earning, is less than his or her Pre-Disability Salary due to the injury or illness causing Total Disability.

Pre-Disability Salary (for the purpose of the partial disablement benefit calculation only) means the total monthly value of Salary received by the insured member from his or her usual occupation, averaged over the most recent 12 month period the insured member was At Work (see definition below) prior to becoming disabled, or the actual period of work if less.

Salary means the fixed annual component of income paid to an insured member by his or her employer in respect of the insured member's employment.

In the case of a self-employed insured member in Emplus Personal Super, "salary" means that part of the income of the insured member's business due directly to the personal exertion of the insured member less that part of the business expenses of the business (measured over the same period) reasonably apportionable to the insured member before income tax.

Please note: some higher risk occupations are not eligible for Income Protection insurance cover. For example, deep-sea diver, explosives handler, jockey, sand blaster, scaffolder, rodeo rider, or stunt person. Please contact the Fund Administrator to check if your occupation is eligible.

It is important that you advise the Fund Administrator if your usual hours of work change as this affects your eligibility for Income Protection insurance.

Important Note: Insurance benefits are only payable if you are eligible for insurance cover, the event giving rise to your insurance claim occurs after cover has commenced and before cover ceases, you meet relevant definitions in the insurance policy and exclusions do not apply. The information below summarises further the terms and conditions that apply.

WILL YOU RECEIVE DEFAULT COVER?

DEFAULT COVER UNDER THE EPLUS EMPLOYER SUPER TABLE OF COVER

Upon being joined to Emplus Employer Super by your employer, provided you meet the specific requirements and eligibility criteria set out below, you will automatically be provided with Death only or Death and TPD insurance cover in accordance with Table 1: Emplus Employer Super Default Table of Cover. This default cover is provided on a unitised basis. You can opt-out of this cover by notifying the Fund Administrator on 1800 366 911. Also, members may apply to increase or alter their cover, subject to meeting the Insurer's application requirements ("Underwriting requirements").

To be eligible for default cover you must satisfy the following conditions:

- we must receive an initial contribution from your employer within 120 days of the date you first become engaged by your employer as an Employee, and
- you must be At Work on the date you join Emplus Employer Super, and
- you must not have received nor be entitled to receive a total and permanent disablement or terminal illness benefit from any insurance policy, and
- you must meet the general eligibility requirements under 'Who is eligible for cover?' below and Automatic Cover Provisions.

'At Work' for this purpose means you are an eligible person actively participating in your usual occupation on a full time basis (if engaged full time) or part time basis (if engaged part time) with your Participating Employer, or you are on approved leave other than leave which is taken for reasons related to injury or illness and you are not in receipt of and/or entitled to claim income support benefits from any source including workers' compensation benefits, statutory transport accident benefits and disability income benefits. If you do not meet these requirements and are not engaged to work at least 15 hours per week, you cannot qualify as "at work" and you are correspondingly described as "not at work".

If you do not satisfy the above requirements for Default Cover that are additional to the general eligibility requirements, you may still be able to obtain Death only or Death & TPD insurance cover by applying for Voluntary Cover if you meet the general eligibility requirements. You can also apply for Income Protection cover which is Voluntary Cover. Voluntary Cover is subject to acceptance of the Insurer.

in these circumstances will be treated as having been paid in error and will be refunded. For this reason, it is important you let us know if there is a change in your work circumstances, to avoid paying unnecessary premiums.

TAILORED DEFAULT COVER UNDER AN EMPLOYER PLAN

If you are covered by a tailored insurance arrangement, information about that arrangement will be shown in an 'Employer Plan Schedule' provided to you on joining Emplus Employer Super.

The type and level (amount) of cover you will automatically receive (if eligible) will be set out in the Employer Plan Schedule included in your Welcome Kit, if applicable. The type and amount of cover you receive is subject to the terms and conditions of the insurance policies for Emplus as outlined in this Insurance Guide, including the eligibility criteria for default cover shown in this Guide.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR COVER?

In addition to the eligibility requirements for default cover, the following general eligibility requirements apply. You are only eligible for insurance cover if you meet all of the following criteria:

- you are a member of Emplus Employer Super
- you are aged at least 15 and up to age 64
- you are an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident (within the meaning of the Migration Act 1958 (Cth)), residing in Australia
- you are an employee of a Participating Employer
- you are not engaged in a higher risk occupation, for example, deep-sea diver, explosives handler, jockey, sand blaster, scaffolder, rodeo rider, or stunt person.

and

- for TPD cover only, you are a permanent employee working at least 15 hours per week on a permanent basis
- for Income Protection cover only, you are a permanent employee working at least 20 hours per week on a permanent basis.

Note: a change in your work arrangements after cover has commenced may result in cessation of TPD cover and/or Income Protection cover.

What happens if you are not eligible for insurance cover?

Your ineligibility for insurance cover may not be identified until you make a claim for insurance benefits. For example, default cover may be commenced for, or included in, your Emplus Employer Super account (and insurance premiums deducted from the account) based on information provided by your employer, but the information might be incorrect or incomplete. If you are not eligible for insurance cover under eligibility criteria specified in the insurance policy, the deduction of insurance premiums from your account and the receipt of those insurance premiums by the Insurer will not result in you being insured. Any premiums paid to the Insurer

HOW MUCH INSURANCE BENEFIT IS PROVIDED?

Unless you are covered by an Employer Plan, default cover is generally two units of Death and TPD insurance cover (see following table). This insurance cover is based on Age based units where the premium remains the same and the sum insured varies. The amount of insurance benefit on Death or Total and Permanent Disablement is the amount of default cover applicable to you.

Up to age 64 (next birthday), you receive two units of Death and TPD insurance for $4.10 per week (that is, $2.05 per unit of cover, per week). Provided your default cover commenced before age 64 and has not ceased (or changed) for any reason, from age 65 to 69 (next birthday), your default cover will be two units of Death only cover for $2.06 per week.

Age Next Birthday (at 1 July each year)	Sum Insured 1 Unit Death & TPD Cover	Number of Units Default Cover	Sum Insured Default Death & TPD Cover
16 – 20	$50,000	2	$100,000

70 *	$6,000	2	$12,000

*Death cover only. TPD cover ceases on your 65th birthday.

Voluntary Cover

If you meet the general eligibility requirements, you can apply for voluntary insurance or additional insurance cover (“Voluntary Cover”) by completing an insurance application form (including “Personal Statement”), available by going to www.emplus.com.au/forms or on request by calling 1800 336 911. Your application will be assessed by the Insurer taking into account the Insurer’s Underwriting requirements. Your Voluntary Cover will commence once the Insurer has accepted the application for cover in writing and the first premium has been paid. The Insurer may apply additional premiums (“premium loadings”), exclusions or restrictions to the acceptance of Voluntary Cover based on its assessment of your application.

You can apply for Voluntary Cover that is:

- voluntary or additional Death only or Death & TPD cover (either as unitised cover or fixed cover); and/or
- voluntary Income Protection cover.

Maximum insured benefit amounts apply. You cannot apply for cover that exceeds maximum benefit amounts.

Note: additional cover is also available by way of the transfer of cover from another superannuation fund or for specified “Life Events” on application to the Insurer without having to undergo the assessment process for Voluntary Cover. Refer to “How can you increase cover without providing Medical Evidence?” below for details.

Death and TPD Insurance Benefits

The amount of insurance benefit is the amount of cover nominated by you at application and accepted by the Insurer. In all cases, the insurance cover you have in Emplus Employer Super cannot provide insurance benefits in excess of maximum limits. The maximum insurance benefit in the case of Death cover is $4,000,000, and the maximum insurance benefit in the case of TPD cover is $2,000,000.

You can decide whether your Death & TPD cover is:

- Unitised cover – this means your insured benefit is made up of units of cover, where each unit equals a specific amount depending on your age. For default cover, the value of each unit is set out in the “Sum Insured 1 Unit Death & TPD cover column” in Table 1: Emplus Employer Super Default Table of Cover above. For voluntary unitised cover, the value of each unit is set out in Table 2 at the end of this Guide. Generally, the value of each unit may increase or decrease as you get older but the cost per unit for default cover does not change (however the cost for unitised voluntary cover does change). TPD cover ceases at age 65.
- Fixed cover – this means your insured benefit is fixed and does not change as you age. Generally, the cost will increase as you get older.

You cannot obtain TPD cover only and the TPD cover amount cannot exceed any Death cover you have.

Income Protection Insurance Benefits

The amount of insurance benefit is the amount of cover nominated by you at application and accepted by the Insurer, subject to a maximum limit based on your Pre-Disability salary / income and a maximum monthly benefit (regardless of your Pre-Disability salary/income) outlined below.

Total Disability benefits:

The maximum monthly benefit is 75% of your monthly salary prior to injury/illness or $20,000 per month (whichever is less) and is payable monthly, after the completion of the Waiting Period, for as long as you remain eligible for the benefit up to the end of the applicable benefit period.

Partial Disability benefits:

A Partial Disability benefit is calculated using the following formula:

$$(A-B)/A \times \text{monthly benefit}$$

Where:

A is the Pre-Disability salary, and

B is the greater of the salary the insured member earns or is capable of earning (calculated by the Insurer based on medical evidence and other relevant information) for the month that the Partial Disability Benefit is payable.

If benefit escalation (also referred to as ‘benefit indexation’) applies, and you have been in receipt of a monthly disability benefit, continuously, for 12 months, the monthly benefit applying at the date you ceased work due to the injury or illness giving rise to your disability, will be increased by the lesser of the annual increase in the Consumer Price Index and an escalation factor determined by the Insurer. Benefit escalation applies for all income protection cover with a 5 year or to age 65 benefit payment period.

Please note: The amount of insurance benefit paid under an Income Protection claim may be reduced by amounts received from other sources including (but not limited to) workers compensation, social security or other statutory or government payment, and benefits under other disability income policies and injury or sickness insurance policies (except for lump sum benefits for total and permanent disablement under such insurance policies). Any lump sum payment received in respect of loss of income is converted to an equivalent monthly amount by dividing the lump sum amount by the lesser of 60 and the number of months in the benefit period. Annual leave, sick leave, long service leave entitlements and investment income received by a member will not reduce the amount of the benefit. Payment of the insurance benefit is also subject to the member being under the regular care and treatment recommended by their Medical Practitioner and, when required by Insurer, undergoing vocational assessment and/or rehabilitation or meeting other requirements of the Insurer.

Death while in receipt of Income Protection benefits

In the event of your death while you are receiving Income Protection benefits, the Insurer will pay an additional month’s payment based on the benefit amount that was paid immediately prior to the death. This benefit is in addition to any Death & TPD insurance benefits you may be entitled to be paid.

When you are applying for Voluntary Cover

Interim Accident Cover

You may be entitled to Interim Accident Cover which may provide a death or income protection benefit resulting from accidents while your application for Voluntary Cover is processed. Interim Accident Cover commences from the date your duly completed application is received by the Insurer and ceases on the earlier of the date the Insurer notifies whether your application has been accepted or rejected or 90 days after the date Interim Accident Cover commences.

Interim Accident Cover is equal to the amount of cover being applied for up to the amount which the Insurer would potentially accept on the basis of a number of factors which include:

- for Interim Accidental Death Cover, the amount of cover applied for or the maximum benefit level, whichever is the lesser; and
- for Interim Income Protection cover, the benefit percentage, a fixed benefit amount or the maximum benefit level, whichever is the lesser.

Any other limits that would be applicable to your cover under the insurance policies, if accepted by the Insurer, also apply.

For Voluntary Death Cover applications (whether a Death only application or as part of a Death and TPD application):

- Interim Accident Cover is provided only in the event of the Accidental Death and during the period in which Accidental Death cover applies.
- Accidental Death means death directly resulting from an unforeseen and unintentional accident caused by violent, external and visible means.

Interim Accident Cover is not available for total and permanent disablement during the period in which Interim Accident Cover applies.

For Income Protection insurance cover applications:

- Interim Accident Cover is provided only if the condition which gives rise to the benefit is the sole and direct result of Accidental Bodily Injury occurring during the period Interim Accident Cover applies.
- Accidental Bodily Injury means an injury which:
  - is caused solely and directly by violent, accidental, external and visible means;
  - occurs independently of any other cause; and
  - is not the unintended and unexpected consequence of an intended act such as the application of unintentionally excessive force or the creation of unintended excessive force, pressure or strain.

HOW MUCH DOES THE INSURANCE COVER COST?

The insurance premiums for default Death and TPD cover under the Emplus Employer Super Default Table of Cover are $4.10 per week for 2 units of cover ($2.05 per unit of cover). The cost of Death only cover under the Emplus Employer Super Default Table of Cover is $1.03 per week for one unit of cover. Refer to Table 1 above.

The insurance premiums for Death only, Death and TPD and/or Income Protection cover under an Employer Plan are the premium rates specified in your Employer Plan Schedule, if applicable to you.

If you are eligible for both default Death and TPD cover under the Emplus Employer Super Default Table of Cover, and additional default cover under an Employer Plan, then the premium rates applicable to each of these default covers will apply.

Insurance premiums for Voluntary Cover that is unitised Death only or Death and TPD cover (other than default cover under the Emplus Employer Super Default Table of Cover) are specified in Table 2 at the end of this Guide.

Insurance premiums for Voluntary Cover that is fixed Death only or Death and TPD cover, or voluntary Income Protection cover (including transferred cover), are detailed in the Tables 4 – 10 at the end of this Guide, based on a range of factors including type of cover, your age next birthday, gender, whether you smoke, your occupation, and (in the case of Income Protection cover) your income protection Waiting Period and benefit period. The Insurer may apply additional loadings, based on its assessment of your application.

Insurance premiums for Life Events cover depend on whether the increased cover is obtained on a unitised or fixed cover based.

Stamp Duty is to be added to Income Protection premiums. Stamp Duty is based on the member's state of domicile and ranges from 5% to 11%. If you would like more information contact the Administrator.

Insurance premiums are calculated on a monthly basis and automatically deducted from your Emplus Employer Super account at the end of each month, if you have insurance cover.

If there is not enough money in your Emplus Employer Super account to pay the insurance premiums, your insurance cover will cease after 30 days from the date premiums were last payable.

The Fund Administrator will confirm premium rates upon application or request for a quotation.

DO YOU NEED TO PROVIDE ANY INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR HEALTH IN ORDER TO HAVE INSURANCE COVER?

Two units of default cover are provided to eligible Emplus Employer Super members automatically without an application to the Insurer, subject to meeting the Automatic Cover Provisions outlined below.

Voluntary Cover is subject to underwriting and written acceptance by the Insurer. An application for cover, including a Personal Statement, will need to be completed. Cover will commence on the date your application is accepted by the Insurer after the underwriting assessment.

Special arrangements apply to applications for transferred cover or "Life Events" cover (see "How you can increase cover without providing Medical evidence" below).

Automatic Cover Provisions

Default cover under Emplus Employer Super is provided without the need for you to supply any health evidence, subject to you meeting all of the eligibility requirements for obtaining default cover (see page 7) and the following Automatic Cover conditions on the day your membership account with Emplus Employer Super was established:

Automatic Cover conditions: You must meet all of the following requirements on the date you first become eligible for default cover:

- for tailored cover under an Employer Plan, the amount of insurance benefit is under the Insurer's Automatic Acceptance Limit;
- when you first become eligible for cover you have not been paid, and are not entitled to an insurance benefit (either under the Emplus Employer Super insurance policy or another insurance policy), are not in a waiting period for such a benefit, and are not in the process of claiming a benefit from any entity;

- you join Emplus Employer Super within 120 days of becoming an employee of a Participating Employer and your employer pays the first employer contribution to your account within this same period;
- you are certified by your Participating Employer as being 'At Work' (as defined below) on the day you joined Emplus Employer Super.

"At Work" means you are an eligible person actively participating in your usual occupation on a full time basis (if engaged full time) or part time basis (if engaged part time) with your Participating Employer, or you are on approved leave other than leave which is taken for reasons related to injury or illness and you are not in receipt of and/or entitled to claim income support benefits from any source including workers' compensation benefits, statutory transport accident benefits and disability income benefits. If you do not meet these requirements and are not engaged to work at least 15 hours per week, you cannot qualify as "at work" and you are correspondingly described as "not at work".

In the following circumstances, your insurance cover will be subject to acceptance by the Insurer, and we will write to you to ask you to submit an application for Voluntary insurance cover or provide satisfactory evidence of health:

- you do not meet all of the eligibility requirements for obtaining default cover or the criteria for the commencement of Automatic Cover (Automatic Cover Provisions) noted above,
- you have applied for additional insurance cover, or
- you have applied for additional units of insurance cover.

WHEN DOES INSURANCE COVER COMMENCE?

Where the Automatic Cover Provisions apply, default cover for Death and TPD commences when you join Emplus Employer Super, subject to meeting the Automatic Cover Provisions set out above on the day that you joined Emplus.

Where the Automatic Cover Provisions DO NOT apply, or if you have applied for Voluntary Cover, the insurance cover is subject to you meeting the Insurer's Underwriting requirements (including the provision of satisfactory medical or health evidence) and will not commence until the Insurer has confirmed acceptance of your application. The Fund Administrator will write to you once this has occurred.

Special arrangements apply to transferred cover and "Life Events" cover. See further details below.

WHEN DOES INSURANCE COVER CEASE?

Your death, TPD and income protection insurance will cease on the earliest of the following:

- The date you reach the benefit expiry age of 65 (except for death cover for which the benefit expiry age is 70)
- The date you commence active duty with the armed forces of any country
- The date you die
- The date you cease to be a member of Emplus Employer Super

- The date the insurance policy terminates
- The date on which all premiums due in respect of you (including all arrears) have remained unpaid for 30 days from the date premiums were last payable
- The date you cancel your insurance cover, effective from the date we receive your request or the date you specify the cancellation to be effective from, whichever is the later
- The date you have been on unpaid Employer Approved Leave (including paternity leave) for more than 12 months
- The date you depart Australia to work overseas unless you obtain the Insurer's prior written approval for continuation of cover and premiums continue to be paid
- The date you become entitled to a Terminal Illness benefit in Emplus Employer Super for an amount equal to the full insured amount of your Death cover
- The date you are no longer working 15 hours per week (income protection cover only)
- The date you are no longer working on a permanent basis (income protection cover only)
- The date you become entitled to a TPD benefit in Emplus Employer Super
- The date the Insurer cancels your cover or policy as permitted under law.

Please note: it is possible that your insurance cover may vary or cease in the event that you change to an occupation which is considered to be higher risk, for example, deep-sea diver, explosives handler, jockey, sand blaster, scaffolder, rodeo rider, or stunt person. Please contact the Administrator if you change occupations to ascertain whether your cover will continue.

WHEN DOES INCOME PROTECTION BENEFIT CEASE?

In the case of Income Protection, once the payment of monthly benefits has commenced to an eligible insured member, those benefits will cease at the earliest of the following:

- the end of the applicable benefit period (chosen by you)
- you reach age 65 (the benefit expiry age)
- you die
- you are no longer totally or partially disabled
- if you are on a working visa, the date your employment contract and/or visa expires or is terminated, or the date you depart Australia
- if you are receiving partial disability benefits, when you become capable of earning your Pre-disability salary or greater
- if you are residing overseas, at expiry of the 6 month period after benefit payments begin (or any other period agreed by the insurer in writing). In this case, benefits will resume only if the Insurer confirms in writing the entitlement for the continued benefit for any period the insured member resides in Australia.

CAN YOU INCREASE COVER WITHOUT PROVIDING MEDICAL EVIDENCE?

You may be entitled to apply for additional insurance as a member of Emplus Employer Super without providing medical evidence. The following two options are available:

Insurance Transfer Cover

You may apply to transfer existing insurance cover with another superannuation fund (Previous Cover) to your Emplus Employer Super account. By completing an Insurance Transfer Application you can apply to transfer up to $1,000,000 of Death and TPD cover and up to $20,000 of monthly benefit under the Income Protection cover. Transferred Cover is subject to the Insurer's written acceptance of your application, and commences on the date stated in the Insurer's written acceptance. The following conditions apply to the transfer of insurance cover:

- An Insurance Transfer Application must be completed
- You must provide evidence of the existence of the Previous Cover. We must receive the evidence within 60 days of the date that evidence is issued
- The Previous Cover must be current at the time you submit the Insurance Transfer Application
- You will be notified following the acceptance of the Insurance Transfer Application
- Where the Previous Cover was subject to any special conditions (e.g. restrictions, exclusions and/or premium loadings) the same special conditions will apply to the transferred cover
- You are not permitted to transfer cover from an insurance policy owned by the trustee of a self-managed superannuation fund
- You are not permitted to transfer cover where you have claimed or are entitled to claim on the Previous Cover
- Upon being notified of the acceptance of the Insurance Transfer Application;
  - You must cancel the Previous Cover
  - You must not transfer the Previous Cover to any other division or section of the previous fund or to any other superannuation fund, or other policy other than the Emplus Employer Super product in AMG Super
  - You must not reinstate the Previous Cover or exercise any continuation option on the Previous Cover
- If the Previous Cover is not cancelled and the Insurer accepts an insurance claim, the Insurer will reduce any benefit payable by the amount of the Previous Cover that should have been cancelled
- Previous Income Protection insurance cover with a waiting period greater than 90 days cannot be transferred
- A 30 day waiting period will apply where the transferred Income Protection insurance cover has a waiting period of 30 days or less. A 60 day waiting period will apply where the transferred cover has a waiting period greater than 30 days but less than or equal to 60 days. A 90 day waiting period will apply where the transferred cover has a waiting period greater than 60 days but less than or equal to 90 days

- The two year benefit period will apply to the transferred Income Protection cover
- Any transferred Income Protection insurance cover will replace any existing income protection cover on your Emplus Employer Super account
- Any transferred Death & TPD insurance cover will be in addition to any existing Death only or Death & TPD cover on your Emplus Employer Super account and is subject to maximum insurance benefits (refer to page 11).

The Insurance Transfer Application form is available at www.emplus.com.au/forms or contact us on 1800 336 911. The transferred cover will be on the same terms and conditions that apply to your existing insurance cover in Emplus Employer Super.

Before you transfer your insurance from your other fund, you should check if it is the right decision for you as you will be required to cease any insurance entitlements you have with that fund.

Life Events Cover

You may apply to increase your Death & TPD cover without supplying medical evidence upon the occurrence of specific life events. Additional Life Events Cover is subject to the Insurer's written acceptance of your application and commences on the date stated in the Insurer's written acceptance. The permitted amount of the increase is explained in the table below.

Specific life events include; your marriage, your dependent child starting secondary school, birth or adoption of your child and a new mortgage or increased mortgage on your principal place of residence. Evidence of the event is required as explained in the table below.

Also the following conditions apply to Life Events cover:

- A Life Events Application must be submitted within 90 days of the occurrence of a specific life event
- You will be notified following the acceptance of the Life Events Application
- You must be an insured member prior to the occurrence of the specific life event. The increase will only apply to the type of cover you are insured for – either Death only or Death and TPD.
- You must be less than 55 years of age at the date of the specific life event
- The Insurer will accept a Life Events Application only once in a 12 month period and a maximum of 3 times during your membership with Emplus Employer Super (Note: for this purpose, any membership of the standalone fund – the Emplus Superannuation Fund – will be regarded as part of your membership of Emplus Employer Super)
- The Insurer will accept a Life Events Application with respect to marriage only once during the period of membership (including membership of the Emplus Superannuation Fund)
- The Insurer must not have declined a previous application for insurance cover from or for you
- Any increase in cover cannot cause your insurance cover to exceed the maximum benefit limits set out on page 11
- At the time of submitting your Life Events Application, you must not have made or be entitled to make a claim under any life insurance policy

- The increase in cover will be on the same terms and conditions that apply to your existing insurance cover.

The amount of increase is the amount set out in the following table:

Life Event	Evidence	Life Event cover increase
Your marriage	A copy of your marriage certificate in respect of a marriage recognised under the Marriage Act 1961 (Cth)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1 unit if you hold unitised cover as at the acceptance date, or</li> <li>• The lesser of 25% of the fixed sum insured (as at the acceptance date) or $200,000, if you hold fixed-dollar cover as at the acceptance date</li> </ul>

The Life Events Application form is available at www.emplus.com.au/forms or contact us on 1800 336 911.

WHAT EXCLUSIONS APPLY?

The Insurer will not pay an insurance benefit in some circumstances which give rise to a claim. Exclusions include:

Death and Total & Permanent Disablement Benefits:

- Any act of war

Income Protection Benefits:

- Any act of war
- Intentional self-inflicted act
- Pregnancy unless you are disabled for more than 3 months after the end of your pregnancy in which case the Waiting Period is deemed to start on the later of the date disability begins and the end of your pregnancy.

Other exclusions may apply. For example, the Insurer may reduce or refuse to pay Income Protection benefits while a member is imprisoned or where there has been a delay in notifying the Insurer of a claim (to the extent that the Insurer's assessment or management of the insured member is prejudiced). For more information about exclusions, contact the Fund Administrator or request a copy of the insurance policy.

MAKING CLAIMS

To make a claim for an insurance benefit, you must be insured for that benefit and your insurance premiums must be paid up to the date the claim arises.

All claims are assessed by the Insurer against the relevant definitions and terms and conditions in the applicable insurance policies issued by the Insurer to the Trustee. We have summarised the significant provisions of the policies but there may be other provisions in the policies that affect your insurance entitlements. You can request a copy of the insurance policies.

If you wish to make a claim against your insurance benefit, it is important that you contact the Fund Administrator as soon as possible on 1800 336 911.

Please note that claims for TPD or Income Protection insurance benefits must be lodged with the Fund Administrator as soon as possible after the event giving rise to the claim occurs. Failure to do so may require the Insurer to reduce or refuse to pay benefits to the extent that assessment or management of your claim is prejudiced by the delay.

INSURER RISKS

With any insurance policy, it is a risk that although you submit a claim, you may not be entitled to the insurance benefit according to the terms of the insurance policy and the Insurer declines your claim accordingly.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

As a condition of your insurance cover (other than default cover), the Trustee requires you to comply with a Duty of Disclosure and to disclose every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may be relevant to the Insurer's decision to provide insurance and if so, on what terms.

Duty of Disclosure

The Trustee who enters into a life insurance contract in respect of your life has a duty, before entering into the contract, to tell the Insurer, OnePath Life Limited (Insurer) anything that they know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the Insurer's decision to provide the insurance and on what terms.

The Trustee has this duty until the Insurer agrees to provide the insurance.

The Trustee has the same duty before they extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

The Trustee does not need to tell the Insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk the Insurer insures you for; or
- is of common knowledge; or
- the Insurer knows or should know as an insurer, or
- the Insurer waives your duty to tell the Insurer about.

You must disclose relevant information

You must tell the Insurer anything you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the Insurer's decision to provide the insurance and on what terms. If you do not do so, this may be treated as a failure by the Trustee to tell the Insurer something that the Trustee must tell the Insurer.

If you provide relevant information to the Trustee rather than the Insurer, the Trustee will provide the information you give the Trustee to the Insurer. The Trustee will do this so that you comply with your obligation to provide relevant information to the Insurer.

If the Trustee does not tell the Insurer something

In exercising the following rights, the Insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If they do, the Insurer may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

If the Trustee does not tell the Insurer anything the Trustee is required to, and the Insurer would not have provided the insurance or entered into the same contract with the Trustee if the Trustee had told the Insurer, the Insurer may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If the Insurer chooses not to avoid the contract, the Insurer may, at any time, reduce the amount of insurance provided. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if the Trustee had told the Insurer everything it should have.

However, if the contract provides cover on death, the Insurer may only exercise this right within 3 years of entering into the contract.

If the Insurer chooses not to avoid the contract or reduce the amount of insurance provided, the Insurer may, at any time vary the contract in a way that places the Insurer in the same position it would have been in if the Trustee had told the Insurer everything it should have.

However this right does not apply if the contract provides cover on death.

If the failure to tell the Insurer is fraudulent, the Insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

INSURANCE TABLES – DEATH & TPD

Table 2: Death/TPD Premium Rates for Voluntary Cover that is Unitised Cover

Voluntary unitised insurance cover is based on Age based units where the premium remains the same and the sum insured varies. The amount of voluntary insurance benefit on Death or Total and Permanent Disablement is the amount of cover applicable to you, calculated in accordance with the number of voluntary units of cover you have and the sum insured per unit outlined below based on your age.

The premium rate for Death only voluntary unitised cover is $0.80 per week per $1,000 sum insured, for members who are employees of employer groups with at least 5 members. The premium rate for Death and TPD voluntary unitised cover is $1 per week per $1,000 sum insured, for members who are employees of employer groups with at least 5 members. If you are not part of an employer group with at least 5 members, an occupational loading applies as set out in Table 3 below.
