We are committed to respecting the privacy of the personal information you give us. Our formal Privacy Statement sets out how we do this. If you would like a copy of Emplus' Privacy Statement, please let us know. We have published our Privacy Statement on our website at www.emplus.com.au/privacy

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

The Trustee who enters into a life insurance contract in respect of your life has a duty, before entering into the contract, to tell the insurer, OnePath Life Limited (Insurer) anything that they know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the Insurer's decision to provide the insurance and on what terms.

The Trustee has this duty until the Insurer agrees to provide the insurance.

The Trustee has the same duty before they extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

The Trustee does not need to tell the Insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk the Insurer insures you for; or
- is of common knowledge; or
- the Insurer knows or should know as an Insurer, or
- the Insurer waives your duty to tell the Insurer about.

In order for the Trustee to comply with the duty of disclosure, we require you to tell us [Trustee] and the Insurer, anything you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the Insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms.

If you do not tell us and the Insurer something that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect the Insurer's decision to provide the insurance and on what terms, this may be treated as a failure by the Trustee entering into the contract to tell the Insurer something that they must tell the Insurer.

If you do not tell the Insurer something

In exercising the following rights, the Insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If they do, the Insurer may apply the following rights separately to each type of cover.

If you do not tell us or the Insurer anything you are required to, and the Insurer would not have provided the insurance or entered into the same contract with the Trustee if you had told the Insurer and the Trustee, the Insurer may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If the Insurer chooses not to avoid the contract, the Insurer may, at any time, reduce the amount of insurance provided. This would be worked out using a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had told the Insurer and the Trustee everything you should have. However, if the contract provides cover on death, the Insurer may only exercise this right within 3 years of entering into the contract.

If the Insurer chooses not to avoid the contract or reduce the amount of insurance provided, the Insurer may, at any time vary the contract in a way that places the Insurer in the same position it would have been in if you had told the Insurer and the Trustee everything you should have.

However this right does not apply if the contract provides cover on death.

If the failure to tell the Insurer is fraudulent, the Insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

As a condition of your membership to the Fund, the Trustee requires you to comply with this Duty of Disclosure and to disclose every matter that you know will be relevant to the Insurer's decision to accept the risk of insurance, and if so, on what terms.
